ARTISTS SERIES COMMITTEE

They Pick Slate

By Joan Pope

The Wartburg College Artist Series presents Rudolf Serkin, pianist . . . the Boston Pops Orchestra Jascha Heifitz, violinist . . . the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo.

These are world-famed names — names of people whom we would gladly large venue to see in another city. But all of them have been brought to our own campus through the services of the Artist Series Committee.

At present the Artist Series Committee is made up of seven members — five faculty and two students — with Dr. A. W. Swensen as chairman. Though their duties range all the way from activity to supervision of ushering, the main job, of course, is to choose the programs for the following season.

Hard Choice. The actual selection of these programs is quite difficult. Appeals come to the Committee in the spring of every year submitting the names of artists or groups and the times at which they will be available. It is from these that the Committee makes its choice. However, they are very restricted by many other factors.

The most important restriction on the committee is financial. To put it in the words of Dr. Swensen, "The Artists Series is just like a business, which must always be sure that it is going to make a profit. The Series Committee must always be sure that it will at least break even."

Financial consideration is so important that it also naturally limits the type of programs which will be offered — neither too popular nor too classical. To quote Dr. Swensen again, "We are always afraid of a student crowd, but it is the people from the community buying season tickets on whom we are dependent. If they don't wish to see the programs we are presenting, we won't be able to finance the season.

"It is after this criteria that we often include the Boston Pops in our series. They are exceedingly popular, relatively inexpensive and are usually available at the right time of the year."

The committee is also limited in its scheduling by other events on the campus. It must always be aware that a Series program will not conflict with a game, play or some other student activity.

Broadening. Besides choosing programs which will be a number financially, the committee also attempts to select programs which will be of artistic broadening to those who see them. In line with this, the Committee tries to vary its big name performers from year to year — a singer one year, a symphony orchestra the next and so on. In this way, most students are able to see a variety of types of programs in the four years they are here.

43 Hold 3.5 As Registrar Lists Honors

Names of 43 students are on the first semester honor roll released by the registrar's office. For students attaining a four-point average were Wayne Weisenbuehler, Lorraine Olinde Daines and Valeria Ashlaxon, juniors, and Barbara Ashlaxon, sophomore.

Bachelors listed with 3.5 were Robert Myers Beisitz, Karen Dettmer, Fritz Fritschel, Valerie Johnson, Richard Lorenz, Edward Schneider, Fred Weidenaller and Wissenhuehler.

Duane Christ, William De Bruin, Mrs. Donna Bruce Friedrich, Miss Gerdt, Robert

Daines Gerdt

Hannemann, Erwin Janssen and Ruth Weidler are juniors who have a 3.5 average or above.

Sophomores were best represented with the following students achieving the honor: Miss Ashlaxon, Barbara Bradt, Roger Fuhs, Dennis Dickman, Gordon Dobberfuhl, Joy Faber schultz, Herbert Hafermann, Norman Hoch, Lois Hoch, Kevin Vern Lueckner, John Meyer, Ronald Pfeil, Darlene Phillips, Julius Roehl, Marilyn Ross and James Schmitz.

The 10 freshmen listed were Dorine Acre, Donna Becker, Marilyn Bahrenfuss, Joan Foster, Robert Herbrich, Heather Koch, Betty Alice Meyer, Gloria Meyer, Beth Schmitt and Andrea Walters.

Of course, whether the choices of the committee are appreciated or not is up to the individual viewer. It is the committee's hope that they are.

WCB Discusses Fixed Weekends, Spring Stylings

Limiting off-campus weekends for women and a spring style show were main issues of discussion at the Monday meeting of the Women's Coordinating board.

A previous meeting of the WCB the suggestion was made to limit the weekends which women could be off-campus. The suggestion was discussed and dropped at the last minute.

A committee was appointed to look into the possibility of lengthening Sunday night hours so that no one need additional traveling time.

Editor Applications To Be Considered

Applications for editorship of the three Wartburg publications will be considered by the student-faculty committee on publications at its monthly meeting Tuesday.

Application forms may be obtained from Miss Margaret Wolff, head of the Journalism Department.

Engelbrecht Will Attend

By Harold Kurtz
Managing Editor

Fate of Wartburg's next building phase will be one of the major topics when the American Lutheran Church Board of Higher education meets in Chicago Monday and Tuesday. Business Manager H. C. Engelbrecht will attend for Wartburg, representing President C. H. Becker.

Concerning the Wartburg building program, plans are just about completed for the new men's dorm. Bids are scheduled for early April with construction slated to start in late spring.

Library plans are still indefinite, according to Dr. Gerhard Otterberg, professor of history and chairman of the library planning committee. According to Dr. Otterberg, Dr. William Young, executive secretary of the Board of the Higher Education, is making a study of the matter.

Not Enough. Engelbrecht stated that the $250,000 allotted by the ALC for the library would not be adequate to build a library suitable for the college. At the Mass Board convention last October, the church gave the college permission to spend $650,000 for building.

Out of this money $400,000 would go for a library and $200,000 for a chapel-auditorium. The board approved a proposal to allow $450,000 to be spent on dorm and $600,000 for a library with no provision for the chapel.

"What we'll have to do," said Engelbrecht, "is build one unit in such a manner that nothing can be easily added to it when sufficient funds are available."

'If and When.' The proposal originally approved by the board stressed that the center of Luther Hall, will be built when the second unit of the dorm funds become available. These funds will be spent in the future, if and when the church receives the money in the future.

In other construction news, Engelbrecht said the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company met with representatives of the college to discuss the new campus telephone system. To have quarters in the new wing of Centennial Hall, the system will serve the entire campus.

Six trunk lines will connect the telephone office with the campus, while a dial system will have the outlet itself. The present F-B switchboard in Luther Hall will be discontinued.

Dr. Carl Oberdorfer Here For Mission Emphasis Week

By Norm Brasch

A week-long program on the World-Wide Mission of the Church will begin Tomorrow morning at 8 when Dr. Carl Oberdorfer, American Lutheran Church missionary to India, delivers the first of three sermons at St. Paul's Church.

Dr. Oberdorfer on furlough from India will also appear at the 6 a.m. Bible Discussion Groups, the 10:45 a.m. service and the monthly Chi Rho meeting in the Little Theater at 1:30 p.m.

Continuing the program on Monday, Dr. Oberdorfer will speak at evening chapel services and at a Mission Fellowship meeting at 7:15 in Wartburg Hall Lounge.

Coffee, Coffee, Chapel. Tuesday's program includes convocation at 10 a.m., a coffee hour for the faculty and staff in the Faculty Lounge in Luther Hall at 4 p.m. and chapel services at 6:15 and 6:45 with Dr. Oberdorfer speaking at each.

Chapel services during the remainder of the week will carry out the mission theme. On Wednesday, Lucille Ashby, president of Mission Fellowship, will lead a "Worship in Song" service.

At Thursday's chapel service the Rev. Waldemar Gies, faculty advisor to Mission Fellowship, will be the speaker and on Friday, Herbert Hafermann, vice-president of Mission Fellowship, will conduct chapel services.

Dr. Oberdorfer is the senior missionary of the India Mission staff of the ALC.

Graduate. Graduated from Capital University Seminary in 1920, Dr. Oberdorfer has spent 36 years working among the people of the Andhra State, India, where the ALC is carrying on mission work.

In addition to his evangelistic duties, Dr. Oberdorfer has held several important offices in the India missions. He has served as president of the South Andhra Lutheran Church, which numbers approximately 15,000 baptized members.

Dr. Oberdorfer has also served as president of the College Council for the Gossner Lutheran Theological College and Research Institute, which has recently been established at Mandras for the advanced training of national pastors for leadership in their church. He also has been general secretary of the Federation of Evangelical Lutheran Churches in India for nine years.

STUDENT VOICE AT THE HOME OF THE KNIGHTS

Volume 22 Wartburg College, Waverly, Iowa, Saturday, February 9, 1957 Number 18

Library..How Big?

Wartburg's ever-expanding Student Body has necessitated a vast expansion in the campus physical plant. Buildings are constructed as rapidly as funds become available. Many of these buildings become inadequate before they are completed.

At its October convention in Blue Island, Ill., the American Lutheran Church gave Wartburg $650,000 — at least that's the theory. Actually, of this sum $200,000 must be apportioned for the new men's dorm, $150,000 will be raised by development and $200,000 of this is "if and when money." The college will get it "if and when" the church raises it.

Originally, college officials wanted to use the total $650,000 for conference room and building — not a men's dorm and a library. However, the church decided that these funds must cover the cost of these two buildings, plus a chapel-auditorium.

Plans are now complete for the new men's dorm, the first unit of it. A committee is now busily working on plans for the proposed library. Their problem: To make $250,000 build an adequate library — not just for now, but for the future.

And how are they coming?

They aren't.

According to one member of the committee, it is an impossibility to do this with the amount of money on hand.

What's the solution?

There are two things which can be done: (1) Build the first unit of a library now and ten years from now, go through the entire process again by tacking an addition onto it. (2) Forget the chapel-auditorium for the present and concentrate on the library.

The second course appears to be the wiser. While there is no question that a chapel-auditorium is needed, practical for the Wartburg campus, none the less, the fact remains that it is not an absolute necessity as is the library.

It is better to have one adequate building than to have two inadequate ones. HK

What Do You Seek? Answer Found In John

By Milton Ott

Several interesting things occur in the book of St. John let us briefly dwell upon one of these things — the first utterance of Jesus in this Gospel.

The first statement Jesus makes is, "What do you seek?" (1:38), and the second is "Come and see" (1:39). Perhaps these words were not spoken in a jiffy — neglected to be first for any possible purpose, but in a sense, are they not vital words to live by for every man in his day?

Ott

In this day and age, when the nation's bestselling books include titles as "Power of Positive Thinking," etc., it is important for us, first and foremost, to stop and ask ourselves, What am I seeking? What do we want in life — power, fame, wealth, success, self happiness, a troublefree existence?

Or do we want to be born of heavenly desiring to help others, to make our blessings, to be living examples of a living Christ within us, to hear any great placed upon us? What are you looking for in life? "What do you seek?"

Then, secondly, Jesus says, "Come and see." If one truly wishes to know intimate details about some organization, he must join its ranks. The story is told of an old woman who heard a great deal about a stained-glass window in a church and, looking at the window from the sidewalk, was disappointed.

Then someone told her to view it from the inside. She entered the church and was overawed at the beauty of the window when the sunlight illuminated it as she standing inside the church. She saw its beauty from the inside. So it is with Christianity.

It will not illuminate our lives, it will not give us comfort and assurance unless we see truly inside of it, unless we know and see! Are you searching to Christ and seeing for yourself? By truly seeing and truly seeing. YOU can inherit life eternal and that "peace which the world cannot give." Christ has offered you this with two simple sentences. How will you reply?

WHAT IN WORLD

Main Arabian Knight Wants Armor

By Don Oberdorfer

Time and again as the world has been through crises after crisis in the political sphere of things, man has been forced to turn from the "show of arms" attitude to the more peaceful if more acceptable diplomatic tactics other country.

Not long ago, India's Nehru visited this country amidst the tinkering showers and the fanfare of military bands which are brought out for all such occasions.

Oberdorfer

Recently, however, Saudi Arabia's King Saud visited us amid the overwhelming quiet imposed by Mayor Robert Wagner of New York. Unable to accept the rules of a "slaw tradition" country which seemed to be opposed to both Catholics and Jews, he discouraged any attempt at showing courtesy to the visiting officials — lamentably the action, as Saud seemed to be more friendly to the United States than the majority of the countries which we have treated with such respect and generosity before.

Saud, ruling one of the most religiously rich countries in the Middle East, only boasts a "lean country" in the hopes of retaining and preserving the friendship which exists between our two countries at the present time.

Of course, as are all the countries in the Arab bloc, Saud is definitely opposed to Israeli action in the Middle East. This tends to strain relations as the United States is pledged to support the Jewish nation.

Having situated strategic and vitally important bases around the world from where death-blows may be dealt to aggressive countries in case of war, we find it vitally important to maintain these bases by continuing friendships of good will, which may or may not have existed thus far.

Thus, in spite of all our hopes for a calm and eventful visit by this monarch, we have let our petty feelings enter in and replace good will by scarling appreciation. We must treat this visitor with all due respect if our goal is to be accomplished.

The question naturally follows, what exactly do we wish to gain from this visiting Arab? Our country, among us, it seems to be about keeping peace throughout the world. It has not let the illusion of perpetual peace dull its senses.

In Saudi Arabia, we have an extensive air network which remains vital to our potential "war effort." It is hoped that we will be able to refuse this contract in order to keep this air base.

Also, the President hopes to be able to convince Saud of the difficulties which are prominent in the Middle East. In this Saud would obtain $250 million worth of U.S. armament. This figures the United States, may be given if non-agression against Israel is assured by Saud.

If we are not careful in our dealings, if we do not go out of our way to show our friendship to others, then we may find ourselves in a position in which the term "friends" will carry no meaning at all, and we will be alone in our dealings with the rest of the world.

If we can keep our heads while all about us are losing theirs, then ours is the world and all the people in it friends.

Intercollegiate intramurals between Luther and Wartburg were approved at a joint meeting between student government officials at Decorah Thursday. Tentative plans call for two meetings, one at Luther and one at Wartburg.

Other business also discussed at the meeting was the art, traveling trophy between the two schools. According to Ed Schneider, intercollegiate relations chairman, full agreement was reached on the symbol.

Also discussed was college representation on the Waverly Chamber of Commerce. The college Specialty Series committee will meet to approve that work is being continued on a popular concert.

In other action, the Senate proclaimed April 21-28 as Publications Week in honor of the 50th anniversary of Wartburg Publications. Newly elected frosh senator, Roger Schneider, was also introduced.

KNIGHT BEAT

by Bob Loslo

Wartburg student makes good. George Herberger, knowing how desperately man, for reasons material, took the trouble to inform me that one former Wartburg coed really put her education to advantage. She graduated. She is a barefoot rider for Cole Brothers Circus.

In the last two Wartburg Players plays Lois Fischlmeyer has been cast as a boy. In its any resolution, Lois was convinced that the Wartburg Players had gone too far. Attached this note to Jerry Hayer, wherever you are: Don't get bad about the water fountain in Wartburg Hall — the Knight is still knockered.

One student has discovered a way to combine the Ivy League look with the Iowa Corporate look. He wears his tapered Oxford grey trousers with the belt in the back — unbucked.

Optimistic estimations won't so much a part of the remote past that you can't shake your hand in and agreement to this definition of optimism: "Intellectual overeating after a long period of starvation."

The Wartburg student newspaper of the University of Minnesota, Duluth branch, tells of the young man who received his college degree and rushed out and yelled, "Here I am, world! I'm ready to take on anything!" The world replied, "Sit down, son, and I'll teach you the rest of the alphabet."

What would you call the following item taking Student Body spirit to the extreme? At the University of Mexico the students confronted several buses from a local travel company and made them sign the company agreed to pay damages to a fellow student who had been struck by one of the buses.

The speaker for Texas University's Religious Emphasis Week ended his speech like this: "You've got to get out on the campus and give 'em . . . Heaven."

Debaters Travel To Pella Today

Two Wartburg debate teams, under the direction of Robert Smith, Speech Department, are at Central College, Pella, today, competing with 50 teams from eight schools.

Sophomores Iris Heaney and Margaretha Angell compose one team, while the other is made up of Freshman Dave Engbrecht and Eugene Moll.

Award To John Hilt

John Hiltner Jr., a Wartburg student in 1951 and 1952, has been selected to receive a Fulbright Scholarship to Turkey — the first such scholarship given to an American in Turkey.

Hiltner is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John Hiltner, Waverly.

Hiltner was to engage in a year of study at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem under a scholarship from the Israeli government, where he was to gather material for his doctor's dissertation on the geography of the Middle East.

While in Istanbul, Turkey, Hiltner was ready to fly into Tel Aviv when war broke out and left him stranded in Turkey, since no Americans were permitted to enter Israel at war zone.

The Fulbright Commission in Turkey recommended him for a scholarship. After studying the Turkish language for two months, Hiltner is traveling along the southern coast of Turkey to make a general study of this part of the Turkish territory.

In February, 1954, Hiltner received his four-year degree from the University of Iowa, and in August, 1956, he received his M. A. degree from there. Last summer he completed work for his Ph.D. at Northwestern University.

Stark Eyes 'B's'

By Stark Wreelism

Ol' Stark climbed the ladder hand over hand to the cubicle under the scoreboard called the press box, admiring his athletic agility until his head banged against the trap door. Two helpful hands lifted the door until he was up another step and then drew back out of the way, dropping the door on the noggin again.

"Who won the first game?" nosy Ol' Stark asked, putting his hand to his head which was rising to the occasion.

"Wartburg. Who else? They were down six points at half time and pulled out 61-48."

"Wow."

"Looks like Bob has got a good ball club this year."

"Sure does. They've won six in a row now. Some of these boys should help next year. Too bad more of the students don't come down and watch these ball games once in a while. This big center, Reimers, really seems to be improving. How many did he get tonight?"

"Seventeen. Those guards Schwarz and Mehlhaus can really move the ball around. That ball club is beginning to look smooth. Schade and Janssen are really hittin' too. They're forwards, aren't they?"

"Yes Say, how did the wrestlin team come out?"

"I don't know. Should's won, though."

"Yeah. Jo's got a good team this year. Brandt, Chelleveld, Bryce, Wilharm, Weyers, Friedricks, Frerichs, Oltmans, all of 'em. Pretty good. Ever see Chelleveld's dad out there watching the meet?"

"Yeh. Bet he goes through every twist and turn Dick does during a match."

"I'd sure hate to sit next to him when Dick got on top of someone."

"That's quite a streak Brandt has, going. Twenty-four. Bryce is doing all right at heavyweight for Jo."

"Yeah. Jo and Bob should be pretty happy now. Too bad kids don't come down and watch those games too. Those boys like a little support once in a while too. Once in a while Ax and the varsity gets the same treatment. Here we were hollering Parsons and Wesleyan for position in the conference a couple of weeks ago. Know who was down for Wartburg?"

"Who?"

"Bundgard."

Wartburg Faces Wesleyan In Knights Gym At 7:30

By Staff Writer

Wartburg with every Iowa Conference game looming as a must in the tight loop race, hosts second-place Iowa Wesleyan on the Knights Gym hardwoods tonight at 7:30.

Knights will be out to avenge the 79-63 loss handed them by Wesleyan earlier this season. Going against such men as Don Gibbs, Bob Grimer and Bob Ballard, this figures to be a tough-tough fete for Wartburg.

Otto Ulp, Traveling to Northfield, Minn., Tuesday, Knight cagers will take on St. Olaf, their final non-conference foe. St. Olaf, a member of the Midwest Conference, stands below Cornell and Grinnell, two Midwest teams which have previously this year been beaten by Wartburg.

Previous meetings of Wartburg and St. Olaf find the Knights on the long end of the scores. St. Olaf won in '44, while Wartburg trounced St. Olaf in '51, '53 and '55, to lead the series at 3-1.

Wartburg, on the first leg of a two-game road trip, invades Pella to tussle with Pella-based Central Friday night. On Saturday the Knights move on to Indianola to do battle with Simpson.

Dutch Clutch. Featuring a concentrated style of offense, the Flying Dutchmen almost pulled a victory from the Knights a month ago, but lost in the final seconds 81-80.

Using defensive tactics, which include almost every known man-to-man, Central has compiled a 61.7 defensive average to lead the league in this department. Couple this with their leading scorers, Virgil Dykstra and Ken Louis, and the Dutchmen figure to be formidable foes.

UP IN THE AIR over Wartburg's winning way of play, Iowa Knight fans express various degrees of excitement as Wartburg scores again.

Arthur Fiedler, Pops On Stage Here Friday Night

Tour Orchestra Making Fourth Stop In Five Years At Knights Gymnasium

By Marsha Arhart

There's an old adage which says, "Do something three times and it becomes a habit." Perhaps that is the case or tradition as the Boston Pops Tour Orchestra returns for its fourth appearance on the Wartburg Artist Series next Friday evening at 8 in Knights Gymnasium.

Whether tradition or habit, Artist Series patrons will once again be in store for a fine evening of musical entertainment presented by the Boston Pops. Under the direction of the inimitable Arthur Fiedler, the Pops is familiar wherever radio and TV is found and appreciated.

Fiedler, a silver-haired and incredibly energetic man, is famous for a wide repertoire of musical selections. Record collectors have been familiar with Fiedler and the Boston Pops Orchestra for years, and their recordings have led to the organization of the Boston Pops Tour Orchestra.

New Figures For Drive

Close to $10,000 has been pledged to the "Waverly For Wartburg" campaign, according to the Rev. Martin Acker, minister, development director.

The campaign is still expected to exceed $100,000, according to the development director.

A number of firms and individuals have indicated a desire to participate, but have yet to make pledges. Efforts are now being made to contact these by mail.

In a breakdown of the figures into three separate phases, Waverly is shown to have contributed $77,267.50, faculty and administration, $18,425, and the student body, $2,000. The campaign initiates gifts received in 1956 prior to the actual campaign.

For the Student Body Project drive, Eugene Van Driel, president, has been named chairman for a March 15 carnival. An annual event, the festival will be used to raise money for Wartburg's Body Project fund.

Pledges now stand at the $2,000 mark with $1,978 in cash having been paid. One month remains before final payments are to be made.

Application Time For Scholarships During February

Students planning to apply for scholarships this coming year should do so sometime during February. Blanks may be obtained in the Dean of Women's office.

Applications definitely must be made before March 1 because after this the committee commences to go over the material, according to W. G. Fruehling, chairman. No person will be eligible without filing in a blank.

Between twenty and thirty class scholarships are awarded to students in the amount of special awards. Class scholarships are awarded on the grade point system, but qualifications vary on the others. Some are made only to certain ones.

It is not necessary to apply for the American Lutheran Public Scholarship because it is automatically given to members of this denomination. A scholarship is considered major when it amounts to or exceeds the $100 mark.

Engaged Recently

Margaret Behrens, senior from Cedar Falls, has announced her recent engagement to Airman First Class James Robert Kilham from Bald Knob, Ark.

Choir To Give LWF Concerts

Wartburg choir, under the direction of Dr. Edwin Liemohn, has been invited to give two concerts on Tuesday, Aug. 20, at the third Lutheran World Federation Assembly in Minneapolis.

Each Lutheran synod in America belonging to the National Lutheran Council is asked to be represented by one choir.

Director Liemohn

Wartburg Choir, in keeping with the spirit of the assembly, will sing selections in Swedish, German and Norwegian. Several numbers by contemporary American composers will be included in the program as well.

The first worldwide meeting of the LWF was held in Lund, Sweden, in 1947. The second meeting was in Hamburg, Germany, in 1952. This year's meeting in Minneapolis is scheduled for Aug. 15 to Aug. 25.

Dos in a Lifetime. The Rev. M. A. Eggs of St. Paul, chairman of the Pedersen's Music Committee, said, "This is likely the only Lutheran World Federation Assembly to be held in our country during our generation."

Among the choirs to be heard at the Assembly is the famous boys' choir from St. Thomas school in Leipzig, Germany, where Johann Sebastian Bach spent the most productive period of his life as a teacher and cantor.

Musicians Meet

Several members of the Wartburg Music Department will attend the Convention of the Music Teachers National Association in Chicago tomorrow through Wednesday.

Faculty members who plan to go are Miss Jean Abramson, Miss Mai Hogan, Dr. Edwin Liemohn, Dr. E. A. Hoelveken, Warren Schmidt and Ernest Hagen.

Helen Mueller, one of 10 Wartburg students invited to the association, will also attend the convention.

Wartburg Goeds At DM Confab

Senior Gloria Wiebe and junior Jean Fritschel represented Wartburg College last weekend at the convention of Student Iowa State Education Association in Des Moines.

Genevieve Goeman, junior, also attended the meeting as a nominee for vice-president of the organization.

Miss Goeman was selected from the nominees to present her piano solo at the banquet of the Delegate Council of the ISEA. Present at the banquet was Iowa Governor Herschel Loveless.

DEAN COUNCIL HEAD

Dr. John Chellevold, dean of faculty, was recently elected chairman of the Church Council at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Waverly.

Art Exhibit Features New York Pics

Washington Square Art Exhibition will be showing at the Fine Arts Center tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 5. Sixteen prize winning pictures from the annual outdoor exhibition held in Washington Square, New York, will be shown.

Miss Helen Chilvers, director of the Wartburg Art Department, states that the exhibit has attracted by over one hundred thousand people in New York.

"This is proof that the show is an important contribution to culture," added Miss Wright.

The exhibition will be held through Feb. 17.
